GROUP TO PROMOTE COUNTY'S WEST SIDE

Some 30 representatives of Minden area businesses sat down and talked for a whole morning last week about the problems of Haliburton County's west side, then decided to up and do something about it all.

Businessmen, home owners, municipal officials and resort operators...all were on hand to dissect the past, complain about the present and plan a bigger, better future. Complaints ranged from charges that the Ontario government deliberately favored other areas of the county over the west side to a profound lack of county-wide solidarity.

The meeting decided unanimously to embark on a co-operative, long-range promotional program for the west side and appointed Steve Bowskill as interim chairman during the group's formative stages.

1 dead 7 hurt

One man is dead, seven injured, while damages total almost $16,000 as a result of some 12 area highway accidents during the past week. Of the twelve, eight occurred over the holiday week-end. Police say that so far, four motorists have been charged under the Highway Traffic Act.

William L. MacDonald, 38, of Oshawa was killed early Friday when his car rolled over and slid some fifty feet along Highway 121 south of the Ingoldsby turn. Mr. MacDonald is survived by a twelve-year old daughter.

A Carnarvon motorist, Mrs. Kathleen Brown, 32, is in serious condition in Lindsay Hospital following a collision between her car and a vehicle driven by David A. Olsen 48, of Niagara Falls on Scotch Line Road Saturday morning.

Friday a car driven by Annie L. Lewis of Wilberforce struck a rock cut while attempting to turn from Highway 648 onto Highway 121. Both she and a passenger suffered minor injuries. Damage was estimated at $3000.

William McColl, aged 73, of R.R. 2 Minden was taken to Minden Red Cross Hospital with cuts Wednesday after his car went in the ditch and hit a hydro pole a half-mile south of Carnarvon.

One of the least expensive head-on collisions in recent memory occurred Sunday afternoon in Guilford Township when damages to the two cars involved totalled

Kennisis Lake drowning

Despite a desperate rescue attempt by two swimmers a 23 year-old Windsor man drowned while sailing Sunday evening on Lake Kennisis. Dead is James K. Korpan, a Windsor engineer.

Mr. Korpan who had only begun sailing this Spring was alone at the time. His 14-foot sailboat capsized about 200 feet offshore around 6 p.m. Two friends, Michael Melanson of Chatham and James Krasovec of Mississauga, saw the boat float away from Jim. Although they immediately swam to his rescue and applied artificial respiration, they were too late to save him. Attending coroner was Dr. H.E. Good. According to Mr. Korpan's brother William of Chatham Korpan was not a good swimmer. He was not wearing a life-jacket at the time of the accident.

The deceased had planned to visit his sister, Mrs. Kathy Smith at her Rock Lake camp this week.

Quilting bee

The Snowden Library located in the Lochlin Community Centre is holding an old-time quilting bee as part of its open-house attractions on Wednesday, July 10 from 2 - 4 pm. The ladies of the community and the library staff and committee invite everyone to participate in their celebration of the County's Centennial by attending this event. Tea will be served and the library's excellent collection of adult and children's books will be available for loan.

BERT COULTER'S FISHING PALS BACK IN SAINT PARIS, OHIO WILL BE IN FOR A SURPRISE WHEN BERT SHOWS THEM THIS 8-1/2 LB. LAKE TROUT CAUGHT LAST FRIDAY AT KUSHOG LAKE. LAST YEAR HIS PALS JOINED HIM FOR A FISHING TRIP, BUT FAILED TO BRING HOME ANY BIG ONES. MR. COULTER SAID THE TROUT PUT UP VERY LITTLE FIGHT. 'IT WAS ALL OVER IN FIVE MINUTES,' HE SAID 'AND IT'S A GOOD THING TOO--I ONLY HAD TWELVE POUND TESTLINE'.

Fire units aid north

Two forest fire units and a supervisory expert left Minden this week to battle fires presently sweeping North-West Ontario. In charge of the units is supervisor Hugh Allore.

This major commitment by the Minden branch of the Ministry of Natural Resources will help Ontario's current serious situation. Some 111 forest fires are presently burning, eighty of them out of control, mostly in the province's northern regions.

This leaves the Minden area with only one fire unit crew but according to Fire Control Supervisor Bob Musclow the area fire hazard is low due to recent rains.

HYLAND CREST Auxillary plans

By Eleanor Mason

Monday, June 24th was the last meeting of the season for the Hyland Crest Auxiliary. Plans for the Refreshment Booth for the 'Gay Nineties' Night July 4th were finalized.

It was decided to charter a bus to take the residents on a trip to Peterborough where a boat would be chartered for a short trip up the Trent Canal. This will probably be towards the end of July. Some plans for the Fall were also made. There will be an End of Season Sale at La Boutique in the Home on Sept. 18th. On Oct. 23rd the Fall Fashion Show will be held. As it was rather early

HERE and THERE with NORM MAIDENS

(Earl T. Monahan Pinch-Hitting)

Great to be back in the Highlands once more, although I really never seem to leave it. A few months back while lunching at the popular Robin Hood Room in Rochester's suburban Henrietta, Judy Maratta, our waitress' first words were, 'Weren't you in Minden last summer?' Come to find out, Judy and her family occupied the cabin next to mine at Hospitality Inn. She said she could hear my typewriter clacking. (Banging out a couple of columns for Norm Maidens). Judy and five co-workers, all housewives, are real pros at their business, and are known throughout the Rochester area as the All-American Lunch-eon Staff.

A real thrill for me to note in the June 20 'Letters to the Editor' columns of Minden Progress, considerable professional medical praise for Norm Maiden's series of articles on Cancer, and the Princess Margaret Hospital which originally appeared in the Progress. You can't hardly beat getting it straight from the horses mouth as Old George Gobel would put it.

Apparently, I missed by about a week the County's Centennial Ball here. Congratulations anyway on that big birthday. I note the Ball was partially sponsored by the Townships of Anson, Hindon and Minden. I never fail to get a kick in reading the names of this melodic trio as the rhythm reminds me so much of the famed old time baseball double play combination of Tinkers to Evers to Chance.

Nice to see the paragraph factory here using a new format. Real sharp. Bill Foote saved me a copy of the Minden Progress Centennial Issue, a sparkling job and a great souvenir.

As a long time booster of the Highlands of Haliburton and an honorary member of its Chamber of Commerce, the recent decision by this body to continue to operate the Minden Information Booth on Route 35 despite possible loss of funds seems to be a wise one. A mighty handsome looking Board of Directors I might add after viewing their photo in the June 20 Progress. Nice to see Marion Arntfield again backstopping Larry Perrott at the Chamber Information Booth.

While in Fred Cooper's Barber Shop for a trim around the edges, had a chance to chat with Lorne Coburn. Also a pleasure to run into J. Earle Palmer on the main stem. It was most interesting for me to attend the Public Meeting at the Minden Community Centre last week on the prospective growth of Haliburton County West, ably chaired by Richard Parisotto and listen to the various proposals put forth by involved citizens.

Brad Robinson of Robinson's General Store drove down from Dorset one evening with daughter Joanne, and kidnapped my granddaughter Kathy for a few days. In picking her up, I took my annual tour of the big store which never fails to fascinate me.

Art Creighton of the Canadian Broadcasting Company in Toronto called the other day and asked me to do a radio commentary on my experiences in the Highlands of Haliburton over the years -- on Dominion Day. By the time that this paper goes to press I hope to have gotten in a few solid blows for the region.

Silver Dollar Production's Frank Hunnisett and Ed Pergolas must have taken a bath on last Friday's Rock Concert promotion at the Community Centre. My head count showed only 200 in attendance when leaving at 11.30. The Concert, featuring two Canadian groups, 'Arc', and the Beatle Imitating 'Liverpool' put on a good show. The young crowd seemed to be mostly 'locals' as apparently the main influx of holiday visitors had not arrived in the area.

Granddaughter Kathy Monahan, and her pal at the Inn, Susan McCloud, from Mississauga, accompanied me and were enraptured. My only regret was that I didn't bring along my ear muffs.

12TH IN A SERIES

This story takes place on three separate dates. Antonio Villas-Boas, twenty-three years old, a farmer by profession lives with his family (two brothers, three sisters and mother and father) on a farm near the town of Sao Francisco de Salles, state of Minas Gerais, Brazil. It all began on the night of October 5, 1957. Sharing a bedroom with his brother, it became warm this night and Boas decided to open a window overlooking the corral. In the middle of it he saw a silvery fluorescent reflection, brighter than moonlight casting light all around it. It was very white, as if it came from the head light of a car shining down. He could see nothing in the sky from where this light was shining. The brother would not look at it and both being frightened closed the shutters and the light still shone through. This lasted for ten minutes and finally the light disappeared. The second episode occurred on the night of October 14th between 9.30 and 10.00 p.m. Boas and his brother were ploughing when in the north end of the field appeared a bright white light hovering a hundred yards above the ground. If an object were casting this light, it was hidden. The brother being afraid would not go to investigate. As Boas approached the north end the light darted to the southern end. He chased the light back and forth across the field at least twenty times before it lifted up and disappeared. The next night, October 15th, alone this time, ploughing in the same spot at 1.00 a.m., he suddenly noticed a red star in the sky which slowly grew larger and looked as if it were coming in his direction. It grew very bright and he could make out an egg-like shape flying towards him at a terrific speed. The object stopped suddenly and hovered at what he estimated to be one hundred and sixty feet above his head, lighting up the field so brightly his head lights on his tractor were not visible in the red glare. Stalling his tractor, he jumped off and started to run away. The ground being very treacherous, he did not get very far. The object then approached forty feet in front of him. The strange type of machine was rounded and full of little purplish lights around it with a large red head light in front. It appeared as a large elongated egg with three metal spurs underneath which appeared to be landing gear. Over the machine was something which rotated at a great speed. Suddenly, as it settled to the ground, the bright phosphorescent red light turned to green. A door opened in the machine where there was no seams marking it and a ladder dropped to the ground. Four figures descended and pursued Boas. They grabbed his arms, lifted him off the ground and struggling, they dragged him into the ship. The main cabin was a square room ten feet by ten feet. The well-lit walls were of a silver grey metallic appearance. The light came from fluorescent squares across the ceiling. The beings were normal height, dressed in tight-fitting coveralls with helmets which showed only their blue eyes through an eye glass type visor. Their eyes appeared no different than ours. Stripped of his clothing, he was forcibly dragged naked into another smaller room. Here, he was physically examined and a sample of his blood was taken through a hose-like apparatus that d-dropped down from the ceiling. The tube was placed on the left part of his chin and a suction noise occurred as they removed the sample of blood. A second sample was taken from the right side of his chin. There was no physical pain from this operation, but dark bruises were left that caused itching irritation for about ten days. During this procedure, there was no understandable communication between the beings. They made low toned grunts interspersed with yelps. These animal-like noises were interpreted by Boas as the sounds a dog would make, but very low-key. He was then bathed with a clear odourless fluid and again forcibly dragged into a third room, the only furnishings being a small couch covered with what appeared to be a foam rubber material, grey in colour, placed near to one wall of the cabin. He began to notice a foul-smelling odour, pungently musty, like the ashes of a fire extinguished by water. Staggering to one corner of the room, he became very ill. Slowly adjusting to this horrible smell, he heard the sound of a door opening, and glancing over to a far wall, he saw a woman standing at the open door where there had been no visible evidence of it being there. This woman was very beautiful and was also completely naked. She was five feet tall with shoulder-length blond hair and a perfectly proportioned body. Her face was wide-shaped. She had Polynesian type features with a very narrow mouth and almost non-existent lips. Smiling at Boas, she rushed forward and warmly embraced him, rubbing her chin over his face, but rebuffing his attempts to kiss her. Despite her repulsive animal-like sounds, he became excited and was manoeuvred to the couch where they made love. After a second time, the woman became very disinterested in him and pushed him away, preventing further contact. At this point, two men entered the room, dressed Boas, and forcibly dragged him out of the space craft, down the ladder, dropping him roughly on the ground. The ship took off hurriedly into the night.

This encounter occurred over a four-hour period. On seeking medical attention, no ill effects were found, only minor radiation over the body.

Antonio Villas-Boas was extensively interviewed by Dr. Olavo Fontes, a professor of medicine at the National School of Medicine of Brazil, who is the Brazilian representative for A.P.R.O. (The Aerial Phenomenon Research Organization) and a top authority on UFO's in South America. Boas open, sincere, fluent delivery of details with no contradictions and no memory lapses as to the events, convinced Dr. Fontes of his credibility and that these events actually happened as described.

There have been other undetailed episodes of interbreeding between space visitors and earth people occurring around the world from time to time, but the persons involved are naturally hesitant to come forward due to the obvious social complications.

No Watergate

A Globe & Mail 'expose' has revealed what virtually every Canadian has known for quite some time: political patronage is part and parcel of Canada's political scene.

Taking a somewhat horrific tone the Globe and Mail disclosed that federal cabinet minister John Munro has been instrumental in providing political appointments to some of his supporters.

Rightly or wrongly this has been an accepted and integral part of the Canadian scene ever since Confederation, starting with Canada's first and possibly greatest prime minister, Sir John A. MacDonald.

As a matter of fact, if political patronage appointments were no longer permitted, those hoping to be appointed to the Senate, for example, would have to make sure they had never at any time openly supported a political party or candidate.

So why now, less than a week before the election, this sudden editorial tongue-clucking. Surely the Globe and Mail must know this isn't Watergate material.

Overdue

Last week's emergency meeting of Minden area ratepayers and businessmen was long overdue. Not only does that area of the county need a substantial boost, it has for some time. Couple this with allegations that the province apparently favors other county areas over Minden and it's obviously high time Mindenites began throwing a bit of weight around.

From just about any viewpoint, Minden has to be the choice county location for future growth and development.

Now that they've had their initial meeting, this group seems determined to turn words into action based on long-range planning.

All can sense the quickening pulse of a burgeoning Minden.

The future is Minden's; let's all work together to bring it about.

DO Vote

As election campaigns go, this latest one has been exceptionally quiet, particularly here in the Highlands.

Campaigning has been mostly low key, with this portion of the riding virtually ignored. This carried right through the campaigning to include the enumeration, which appears to have been handled rather casually, if not in a slipshod fashion.

One has the impression that at least two of the parties have virtually written off this segment of the riding, if not the whole of Victoria-Haliburton, while the third party feels secure enough to coast in.

All the more reason for us here in the Highlands to get out and vote. The importance of our vote is well-known to each of us having been repeatedly drummed home with all the best and time-honored cliches.

The political parties and their representatives may not be coaxing us out this time, but all the more reason to make sure we DO vote.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

The Editor,
The Minden Progress,
Minden, Ont.

Dear Sir,

This year we have acquired a government OFY grant financing our plan to establish canoe routes and hiking trails in the townships of Anson, Hindon and Oakley. A specification of this grant was that we must receive support from the local merchants. Thus far we have received financial and/or material support from the following businesses: Home Hardware, Bob's TV & Hardware, Modern Electric, Cox's Apparel, Northland Surplus, Red & White and Alrutz's Delicatessen. Special thanks go to the Ministry of Natural Resources the Registry Office and the Offices of the Municipality who aided us in our research. Personal thanks go to Mr. David Mowat, Miss Katherine Koehler, and Mr. Bill Hutchison who donated freely of their time to help with the organization of our project.

Dear Mr. Johnson:

After reading your letter to the Editor, Minden Progress June 20th, I would like to respond by saying that it is high time our Municipal Council members spoke up and called a spade a spade as they have done in describing the Haliburton County School Board. The elected members of the Municipal Council are our representatives and we count on them looking out for our welfare.

People individually have been criticizing the large County School Boards since they were formed and their criticism has gone unheard. If our Municipal officials have the courage to take a stand against an untouchable such as the School Board, then I, for one, say 'Bravo' and pledge them my full support.

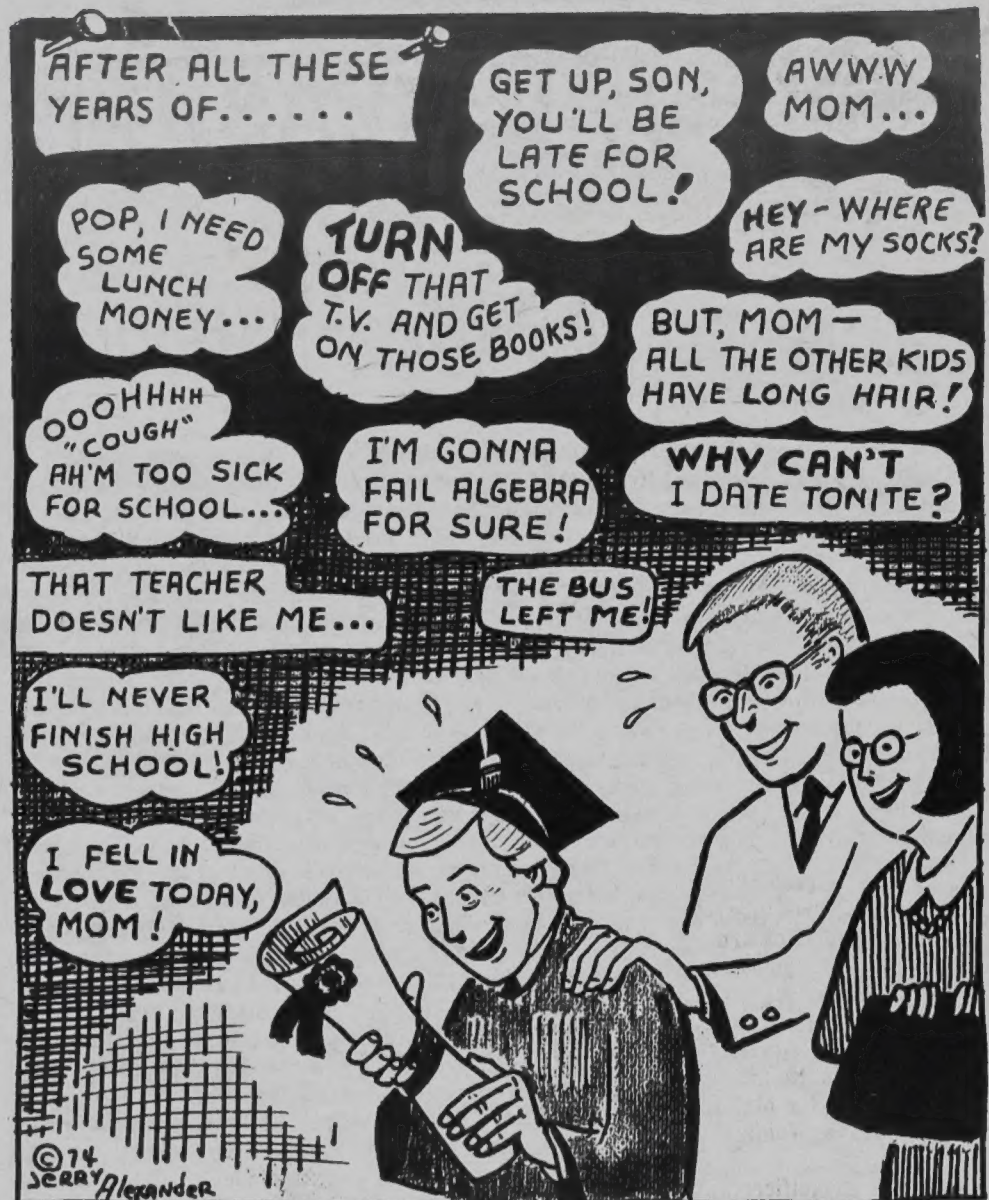

Yours truly,

THOMAS J. BELL

CENTENNIAL CORNER

HALIBURTON COUNTY CREST

The Crest of the Provisional County of Haliburton was first used in 1925 and was developed from the coat of arms of Baron Arthur Lawrence Haliburton, youngest son of Lord Thomas Chandler Haliburton, and described in Burke's Peerage as 'a stag at gaze gorged with a chaplet of maple leaves between two branches of maple all proper'. The motto for Baron Haliburton was 'Watch Well', while for other branches of the Haliburton family it was 'Watch Well'.

A magnificent replica of the Haliburton County Crest has been created as a Centennial project by residents of the Hyland Crest Senior Citizens' Home out of 3800 ribbon petals on a four by eight foot board. An excellent Production of the crest is available for everyone in the form of decals at a cost of twenty-five cents each.

HALL'S LAKE NEWS

by Doreen Stinson

Sunday last was a special Memorial Day at St. Stephen's Church, Boshkung, and there was a good attendance. The Rev. Thomas Gracie of St. John's Church in Bowmanville was the Guest Speaker and since he was a former Rector at St. Stephen's he met many old friends and acquaintances as well as newcomers and visitors. Mrs. William Gartshore played the organ and Mr. Raymond Oliver and Mr. Wm. Mole received the collection, which goes toward the upkeep of the Cemetery.

We welcome Don A. Hall, A.A.C.I. to his new office here at Hall's Lake. Don's three sons, Peter, Larry and Mark are taking over many of Don's duties with Beatty-Hall Construction Company Limited in Burlington which leaves Don free in his new field of handling real estate appraisals in Haliburton, Muskoka and surrounding areas. Don and his wife are here at the Lake much of their time but still actually live in Aldershot, Burlington.

The Rev. Stanley B. Hills, his wife and family are visiting at their cottage again. Their daughter Beckie will soon be graduating as a Registered Nurse and expects to be married this Fall.

Although the weather was rainy and unsettled and a little on the cool side over this long week-end, still hundreds of people arrived to spend time at their cottages and at the camping sites. So once again we are starting into another busy Summer with more and more people 'escaping' the City life.

Euchre goes on each Monday night at Club 35 starting at 8 p.m. and YOU are invited, also Bingo Night is every Wednesday at the same hour also these should provide a 'night out' for the regular members and Summer visitors. Club 35 is right on the Highway beside the Esso Station.

Some folks are taking advantage of the Advance Voting in the City so they won't have to go back for July 8th. Cottagers are not allowed to vote twice of course, and only at their place of residence.

Mr. & Mrs. Imason of Oshawa visited with Mr. & Mrs. Murray McGuire over the long week-end.

Mr. & Mrs. Robert Hunter of Burlington were guests here over the week-end, having brought Miss Patricia along to work for the Summer.

The Coffee Club made up of Daniel Regan, Dr. George Morrow, Dr. Bruce Morrow, David MacLennan, Rev. S.B. Hills and Stephen Fletcher have been meeting at 8.30 each morning, enjoying their coffee, home-made bread and conversation, picking up their Globe and Mail papers and Hamilton Spectators.

Just a reminder about the Gay Nineties' night at Hyland Crest. This Thursday a large crowd is expected to attend and the Auxiliary will be on hand to serve hot dogs and doughnuts.

Something Special

SAUSAGE SORCERY

* This month's calendar is filled with graduation parties, bridal showers and bride's first home-cooked meals. All of these occasions call for savory sausage products.

* For party menus or snacks, spread sliced bologna with pineapple pasteurized cream cheese spread. Stack up and chill until firm. Slice in wedges and insert toothpicks.

* For a spicier snack, spread slices of salami with a mixture of 3 ounces cream cheese, 2 tablespoons bleu cheese and 1 tablespoon milk, beaten together. Chill until firm and slice in wedges. These are great with your favorite beverage.

* Bologna is a mildly seasoned sausage made of finely ground pork and beef. The meat is packed into casings and smoked. Several varieties are available and it offers good, nourishing eating at a reasonable cost.

* Sliced wieners, sauteed in butter and added to Spanish rice makes a quick and tasty dinner for two. Complete the menu with fresh green beans and a tossed salad.

* The working bride should consider a main dish salad for summer supper. Try this Italian-style chef's salad: Toss together torn up lettuce and fresh spinach. On the top, sprinkle sliced salami cut in wedges, sliced fresh mushrooms, cubed Mozzarella or Provolone cheese and cherry tomatoes. Toss at the table with Italian dressing. Serve with garlic bread.

* Eight ounces of liver sausage combined with a 3-ounce package cream cheese, 3 slices cooked and crumbled bacon and 1 tablespoon lemon juice makes an attractive shower sandwich filler. Serve on cocktail rye bread and top with half a hard-cooked egg slice.

TODAY'S CHILD

BY HELEN ALLEN

THE TORONTO SUN SYNDICATE

Ross is a good-looking boy, and his disposition and manners are as pleasant as his appearance.

Just turned 12, Ross has dark hair, expressive brown eyes and rosy cheeks. He is sturdily built and healthy.

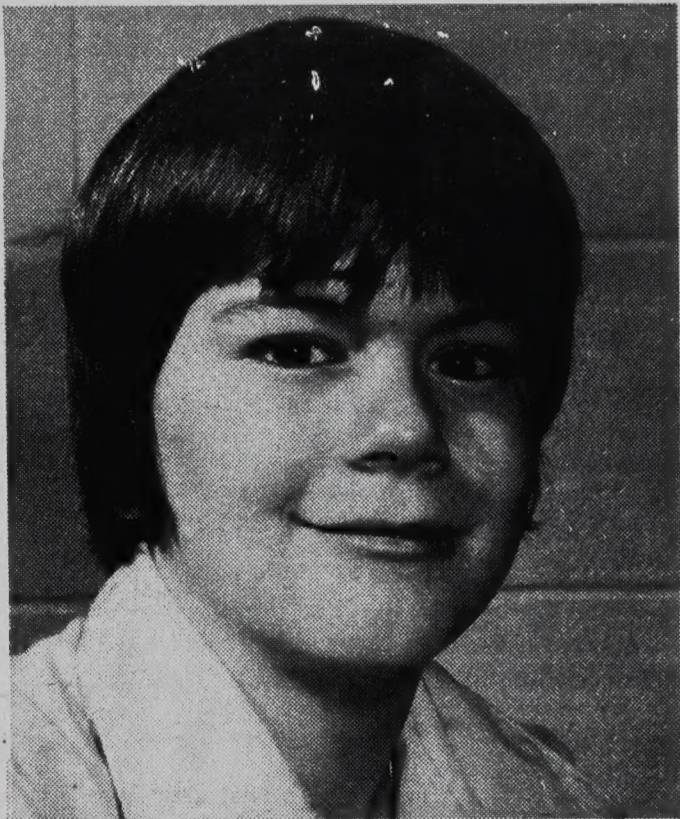

Ross is warm-hearted, affectionate and outgoing, liking people and animals. He is the kind of boy adults appreciate because he enjoys grown-up company and is co-operative and polite.

At present, Ross attends a school for exceptional children (in his case exceptional meaning below average). He is in a special grade in the senior section. He has the intelligence to go to a vocational school when he reaches the secondary school level.

Ross is active and keen on sports. Soccer is his favorite but he plays most games. Fond of music, he likes to sing at school functions. He joins whole-heartedly in youth activities at church. Though Ross does not read much himself, he enjoys someone reading to him, especially at bedtime.

Ross needs a mother and father who will value his affectionate nature and who will give him warmth, love and encouragement. He will do best as the only child or as the youngest in his adoption home because he tends to compete with other children.

To inquire about adopting Ross, please write to Today's Child, Ministry of Community and Social Services, Box 888, Station K, Toronto M4P 2H2. For general adoption information, please contact your local Children's Aid Society.

Roadeo

Some 28 contestants competed in the Annual Safe Driving Roadeo held at Huntsville June 12 by the Ministry of Transportation and Communications. Comprising both written and field tests, the roadeo is designed to test the skills and safe driving practices of equipment operators, as shown above. Winner and Roadeo Champion was Alf Little of Nobel, seen top, as he received the Bill Holt Memorial trophy from District Engineer Robert S. Chapman, left, and District Safety Supervisor Al Reynolds.

He Had a Better Idea...The Elevator

Elevators have been used for centuries to lift freight — but until 1854 people were afraid to ride them because hoisting cables sometimes broke, sending them crashing to bottom.

In 1854, however, Elisha Otis, a mechanic in a bedstead factory, demonstrated a new contraption called an "automatic safety elevator" — and unwittingly made the modern skyscraper feasible.

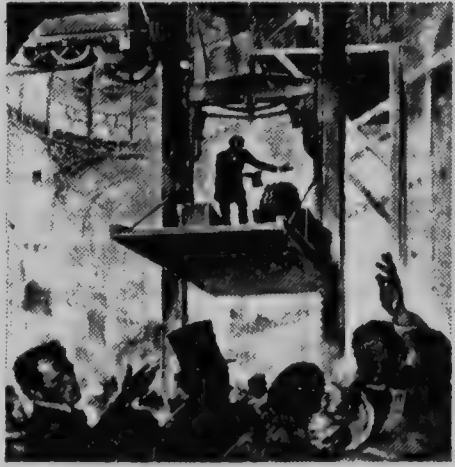

Otis' demonstration was dramatic. He installed his new elevator at the Crystal Palace Exposition in New York City and, while a crowd gathered below, rode it to the ceiling. An attendant cut the rope, and the spectators gasped — but Otis' elevator plunged for only a fraction of a second before a safety device stopped it.

"All safe, gentlemen, all safe," smiled Otis, tipping his hat, and the crowd roared its approval.

Prior to Otis' invention, few buildings stood over five stories high because stairs were the only way up. Rooms on top floors were always cheapest.

Otis, who had once worked for a wagon manufacturer, got his better idea from . . . a stagecoach spring.

To design an elevator safe enough for humans — and make his fortune — he installed stagecoach springs in such a way that if the elevator hoisting rope broke, the springs would snap out sideways and catch in notched wooden rails on each side.

ELISHA OTIS risked his life to prove elevator was safe.

Following Otis' successful demonstration at the Crystal Palace Exposition, the first elevator designed for passengers was installed in 1857 in a five-story building owned by the china and glass firm of E.V. Haughwout and Co. in New York City.

Today there are about 330,000 elevators in the U.S. alone, and the Otis Elevator Co. is a multimillion-dollar operation.

POWER PYLONS

Streamlined poles are becoming Ontario Hydro's standard for new and replacement transmission lines in urban residential areas.

Simpler in silhouette than the familiar lattice towers, the free-standing steel structures are also painted to blend with their surroundings. The octagonal upright of this Mississauga pole is dark green, and the crossarms light green. Different color combinations, such as sky blue and grey, will be tried in other locations.

As a crane lifts the 13-ton load, a crew member helps guide the 122-foot pole onto a steel base embedded in 20 feet of concrete.

Historic Plaque

On Sunday, June 16, 1974, an historical plaque marking St. Paul's Church, Minden, was unveiled in front of that building in Minden. This plaque is one of a series being erected throughout the province by the Historical and Museums Branch of the Ministry of Colleges and Universities, acting on the advice of the Ontario Archaeological and Historic Sites Board.

Shown from left to right following the ceremony are: The Reverend Andrew S. Hutchison, St. Paul's Church; Mr. Norman Maidens, President, Minden Historical Society; Prof. William Ormsby, Department of History, Brock University, who represented the province's Historic Sites Board; Mr. Walter Noice, a warden of St. Paul's Church; Mr. Murray Fearry, Warden, Provisional County of Haliburton; Mr. William Scott, former M.P. (Victoria-Haliburton); Mr. Glen Hodgson, M.P.P. (Victoria-Haliburton); Mr. Reginald Booth, Reeve, Townships of Anson, Hindon and Minden; and, the Most Reverend Edward Scott, Primate of the Anglican Church of Canada.

MILK

The solution to the nutrition problems brought to light in the Nutrition Canada survey may be as simple as persuading everyone to drink an extra glass of milk a day. Out of the nine major nutrients found deficient in the Canadian diet, seven are supplied by milk.

The long-awaited national survey found widespread inadequacies in all age groups. For example, 2 out of 5 women had a less than adequate intake of calcium, and 1/3 of the children tested were consuming less vitamin D than recommended.

In the case of calcium, milk is the only food consumed daily which gives you an adequate supply. And since vitamin D is so hard to find naturally in foods, drinking fortified milk is the one way to ensure that growing bodies get as much as they need.

In addition, milk is an inexpensive and easily consumed source of protein, riboflavin, vitamin A, thiamin and niacin. Milk doesn't contain much preformed niacin, but it does supply a lot of tryptophan which the body uses to manufacture its own niacin. In fact, the only two important nutrients which milk doesn't supply are iron and vitamin C.

An apple a day may be the traditional remedy, but a glass of milk beats it by a country mile when it comes to solving the real health problems of this country.

Summer Theatre

Three Canadian, two American and two English plays will make up the 1974 Kawartha Summer Theatre Season. Opening on July 8th, the season will run at the Academy Theatre in Lindsay on Tuesdays through Saturdays, with previews on MONDAY NIGHT AT THE HALIBURTON HIGH SCHOOL, the same pattern that has been followed for the last few years.

First play of the season is the hit English comedy 'No Sex Please, We're British' by Anthony Marriott and Allstair Foot. This has been one of the most successful London comedies for years. It is followed by 'The Hand that Cradles the Rock', the very funny comedy by Warren Graves of Edmonton about babies and careers.

'Arsenic and Old Lace', Joseph Kesselring's wild comedy about the two dear old ladies is third on the bill and then 'Thark' by Ben Travers, a 1924 English Farce in the 'Carry On' style. Arthur Murphy's 1967 hit 'The Sleeping Bag' follows and then Nell Simon's smash comedy 'The Prisoner of Second Avenue'.

The season winds up with 'The Secret of the Spyglass', a comedy melodrama by William Pendergrast of Thunder Bay, this is a stirring tale of river pirates...all of them women...on the St. Lawrence River in the early 1800's. It replaces the musical melodrama with local actors which has been seen at the end of the season for the last five years.

SENIOR SOFTBALL

Gull River Bombs Oshawa

On Sunday afternoon in Haliburton, OASA Intermediate 'C' entry from Minden, Gull River Bulldall, completely outplayed Oshawa Pop People 12-6.

The Pop People are the Haliburton Invitational Softball Tournament, 1973 defending Champions.

George Nichols and Cliff Burke led the Builders offensive attack. George had four hits in five plate appearances, scored twice and knocked in six runs. Cliff was also four for five, scored four times and had three runs batted in. Craig Stamp was three for five, and two runs batted in. Rick Hartwick started on the mound for Gull River, went five innings, gave up one run on five hits, three walks and struck out four. Craig Stamp came on in the sixth, gave up one hit and six walks before giving away to Gary McKnight in the top of the ninth with two on and nobody out. Gary retired the side on five pitches with the help of a double play by the infield.

This was an extremely big win for Gull River, as this team appears to have good pitching, fine fielders and solid hitting. If the team plays in the OASA Play-offs, like it did yesterday against Oshawa, the Builders could go quite a way.

For all those local softball fans, who we at Gull River Bulldall hope will come out and support us in the OASA Play-offs, here is a list of players that are on the team. Playing coaches are Neil Burk and George Nichols, pitchers Rick Hartwick, Craig Stamp and Haven Cook. Infielders, Cliff Burke, Bob Austin, Al McMullen, Gary McKnight. Outfielders, Tommy Lee, Jim Burk, Ken Lewis, George Simmons, Paul Sisson and Bernard Bain.

Dominion Sweeps Series With Huskies

Dominion Hotel came up with four big points last week at the expense of the Haliburton Huskies. The four points moved the Shufflers into a six point lead atop the Senior Softball league with twenty-one. Second is West Gullford with fifteen and third is Gull River with fourteen.

On Tuesday evening in Haliburton, the Shufflers came up with eight runs in the eighth and ninth innings to win going away 15-6.

Dave Trepanier led the Dominion attack with his fifth and sixth homers of the season. Jack Snell and Gene Newell also had round trippers for the winners. Snell (6-0-1) picked up the win, while Huskies Gary McKnight (1-1) took the loss.

On Wednesday evening in Minden, the return match between these two teams was much closer, with Dominion managing to hold off the fired-up Huskies, to win 9-8. The Haliburton squad came up with three home runs in this game. Ken Lewis, his first of the year, a two-run shot in the fifth, Gary McKnight his second of the season in the top of the seventh, a solo effort and Steve Roberts, a two run blast over the centre field fence in the seventh. However, the Shufflers then shut the door, as Snell struck out the final two Huskies, in recording his seventh win of the season to go with one tie and no defeats. The loss went to Gary McKnight, his second of the season.

Gull River And West Guilford Split Series

On Sunday evening in West Gullford, the Redmen extended Gull River's winless streak to four games with a 7-6 victory.

Paul Sisson led the Redmen attack with two homers, while Floyd Henry clouted a grand slam, to account for all the West Gullford scoring.

On Monday in Minden, the two teams went at it again and when the dust had settled there were six homers hit and the Builders came out on top 12-11.

George Nichols knocked in four runs with his fifth and sixth homers of the year for Gullford. Craig Stamp also had two homers for the Redmen, his eighth and ninth of the season, one a grand slam, to account for five Redmen runs. Paul Sisson knocked in the remaining two with a two-run homer in the fifth, his third in two nights. However, all this power was to no avail, as Gull River smashed out nineteen hits, including a two run homer by Cliff Burke, his first of the season, to win the game. The Builders trailed by as many as six runs at one point in the game. Cliff Burke was five for five at the plate, scored three times and knocked in five runs including the winner in the sixth.

Rick Hartwick and Craig Stamp were the pitchers of record, each winning and losing in the series.

In other senior league softball games played this past week, Gull River downed Vasey's Midgets 12-8, Haliburton Huskies trounced Gooderham 22-4, West Gullford won a forfeited game from Gooderham when the latter failed to show up for a scheduled game in West Gullford on Sunday at 6 pm.

Gull River held a 5-0 lead on Vasey's until the bottom of the fifth, when the Midgets erupted for seven big runs to take the lead. However, the Builders scored four in the seventh, two in the eighth and one in the ninth to win going away.

Gull River used three pitchers in this game, Brad Hamilton went four innings, gave up five runs on four hits and six walks and struck out two. Ted Vasey then came on in the fifth with bases loaded and no one out. Ted allowed three runs on three hits, four walks and fanned two. Tommy Lee then came on in the seventh to get the win. Tom gave up no runs, two hits, three walks and struck out two. This was Tom's fourth win against three losses.

In Gooderham on Thursday evening, the Huskies scored thirteen runs in the first inning, to win easily in five innings. Gary McKnight picked up his second win of the season to go with a pair of losses.

TODAY'S HEALTH

Nurse practitioner offers care and competence

by David Woods

Next time you visit your doctor's office, you may find that you're getting all the medical help and advice you came for — without actually seeing the physician.

If that's the case, don't worry. The family doctor hasn't fled, leaving your health for the chilly attention of a computer; he's probably using the professional services of a trained nurse practitioner.

The idea of the nurse practitioner — or family practice nurse, as she's sometimes called — isn't new: in isolated northern parts of Canada nurses have for years fulfilled many of the functions of a doctor — including putting in stitches, prescribing antibiotics and setting fractures.

Such nurses work in an even more independent role than that of the physician's associate (or assistant) in the United States. Like the associate, who has been part of the U.S. medical scene for some years, the northern nurse practitioner also performs history taking, and testing and diagnostic procedures; but the difference is that the northern nurse doesn't have a doctor just down the corridor. She has to use more initiative and resourcefulness.

So it was only a matter of time before 'the nurse with something extra' — the nurse practitioner — began to play a part in the overall medical scene.

The reasons for this are quite straightforward: new developments in medical knowledge and techniques are opening up new areas for the doctor's attention. To master them and apply them for the patient's benefit, he must share many of the tasks he used to perform.

And this doesn't mean simply handing over the jobs the physician doesn't want to do. Increasingly, medical care is being provided by a team in which each health care professional does what he or she is especially trained to do best.

So the nurse practitioner is in no sense a second class doctor; rather, she is a nurse with additional skills and education that enable her to fill an expanded role in her own profession — enabling the doctor to do the same in his.

As an important member of the health care team, she works in close partnership with a physician to provide a higher level of service to the patient. What this means is greater continuity of care, and better follow-up, for more people.

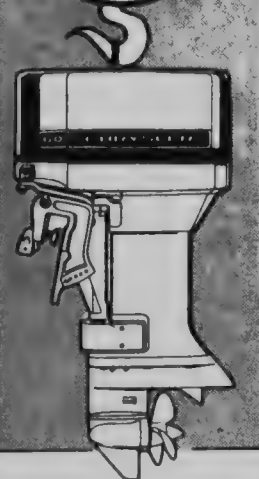

At present, three universities in Ontario — Toronto, McMaster and Western — provide special training programs for nurse practitioners.

At McMaster, candidates must be registered nurses with at least one year of nursing experience. The program teaches interviewing, history taking, physical assessment, recognition of prevalent diseases — and other aspects of health care and the health care system. The physicians they work with also participate in certain aspects of the course with the nurses.

More than 100 nurse practitioners have been trained in Ontario to date.

Next time one of them takes your blood pressure, taps your knee with a mallet, conducts an ear or an eye test — or even a complete routine examination — remember that she is part of a team trained to provide health care in the most effective and appropriate way. And, while the physician remains the final decision-maker in medical matters, the nurse practitioner is probably doing as good a job in her particular area of expertise.

ABOUT THE TOWN

with Jeanne Sears

A new store in Welch's General Store will feature electric games and sell jeans, posters, ice cream, souvenirs, crazy David T shirts, and assorted merchandise and aimed primarily for the younger crowd in the Highlands area. The upstairs will consist of antiques, some quite rare. In addition there will be a large display of original oil paintings by Canadian artists. Many of these paintings will be actual landscapes of the Minden and Haliburton region.
Mr. and Mrs. John Cowen and Royce Cowen and Mr. and Mrs. Bruce McKnight of Port Hope are away enjoying a 3-week motor trip to Calgary Stampede and Banff, Alberta.

Sincere sympathy to the families and friends of the late Mrs. Charles Fader and Mrs. Bob Harvey, whose funerals were since last week.

Watch for the UCW Bake Sale on the Main Street on Friday, in case of rain check in Stedmans.

Patients in out-of-town hospitals include Russell Harrison, Toronto General, Mrs. Dave Titus, Civic Hospital, Peterborough, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Walker are happy on the arrival of their new baby boy.

Haliburton County Centennial Events is one by Coy Public Library. First of these is the Global Village theatre production of Modern Fables, July 13 at Minden Recreation Centre at 2 pm. This is free to all members of Public libraries, but pick up your ticket at Minden Public Library. Remember, only members, but youngsters may join this branch if they bring along a parent. Other dates will be given later for other productions this month.
Mr. and Mrs. Bert Chamberlain and Douglas of Toronto spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Glen Stamp.

There was a meeting at the Recreation Centre on June 26
by some thirty people interested in promotion of Haliburton's western townships. This three hour meeting had many discussions on ways of promotion and different committees will be set up. Interim Chairman selected was Steve Bowskill and further meetings will be called but no date set as yet.

This is the last week of the speeches by candidates for July 8th Federal election. Everyone seems to listen but we wonder what party will come out on top, or will we have a majority government. At any rate many people were at the Advance Poll to cast their vote at Legion Hall last Saturday. If your name is not on the voters list, you may be sworn in July 8th and voting place is the Parish Hall. We are lucky to have a choice so do mark your ballot with an 'X', not a check mark.

Hint of the week--Fasten one of those small date calendars inside your cheque book so these are dated correctly.
Monday, July 1st was no holiday in our tourist area, as businesses were open for shoppers. This is surely different from the activities of some years ago with Sports Days, when everyone enjoyed a picnic and all the races run that day.

There was a man who was in Court for not filing his Income Tax; his reason, he had such a poor year, he hated to put it down on paper.

At last the Minden Women's Institute Project is under way.
This is the booklet containing the 'Legend of Haliburton' written by Mavis Noice. This would be a fine souvenir to send to relatives and friends or for your own souvenir shelf for Haliburton County's Centennial Year. The cost is low and size fits in a business envelope. They are available many places in the County, including branch libraries, County offices and gift shops.
Mr. Jack Brydson of Toronto visited with Mr. and Mrs.
Bill Moore and relatives and friends over the weekend.
Is this true? You are getting old if it takes you longer to rest than it did to get you tired.
The Curling Club had a very successful Bake Sale on Sat, but in Stedmans Store, with fresh baking being sold as quickly as it came in.
Last weekend saw the swarming of visitors to our area, the weather was certainly wet but war; on Sunday it cleared so part of the time we had good weather. Several accidents so drive carefully and enjoy our waterways, safely too.
Cheerio until next week.

6 to 8 eggs
2 1/4 cups stewed tomatoes
1 to 2 tablespoons butter
1/2 teaspoon salt
dash of pepper

Melt butter in heavy frying pan over camp fire. Set aside to cool slightly while canned stewed tomatoes (they have celery, onion, seasonings, etc. already added) are measured and the liquid drained off into a cup or glass. Break eggs into cooled pan, add approximately 3 to 4 tablespoons tomato liquid (remaining juice can be a bonus appetizer drink for the chef) and beat slightly with fork to blend. Cook, stirring occasionally, until eggs begin to set. Add drained tomatoes and continue cooking and stirring two or three times until eggs are desired consistency. Tomato should be left in fairly big chunks. Season to taste and serve with vegetables and salad. Also nice as a Luncheon "Burger" served on buns (plain or toasted).

Fenwick Finch campaigns

Interest in the Howland Junction election and the surging Fenwick Finch campaign reached new heights last week with the announcement that one of the 2-1/2 acre riding's two dogs was expecting.

'If she whelps before July 8, we'll have them pups to the polls no matter what', said Mr. Finch, who explained that the size of the litter could increase the number of eligible voters in the riding by as much as 50 per cent.

Mr. Finch, who is conducting a beer parlour campaign with the catchy slogan 'WE NEED ME', represents the Separate Independent Candidates (SIC) Party in Howland Junction. Over the Holiday weekend he carried his party's banner to a special SIC-Finch Voters' Picnic in the parking lot of the Howland Junction Hotel where he promised, if elected to 'press for a Minden Mall'.

'My plan', said Finch, 'is to close the Minden Bypass section of Highway 35 to all traffic for the two summer months and turn it into a mall like they done to Toronto's Yonge St.' he thundered.

Candidate Finch also called for a union shop for Canada's unemployed. 'It's about time someone took some interest in 'em', said Finch. 'This way they could bargain like any other union for pay increases and fringe benefits.'

'Mind you', he counselled, 'they'd have to agree to havin' their union dues deducted from their pogeys at source'. 'What if they went on strike Fen', queried a picnicker. 'Why I guess they'd be right back where they started, wouldn't they', responded Finch.

In his brief, whirlwind campaign, Mr. Finch has promised a low-cost, nation-wide government housing and mortgage scheme to be called Super Living Under Me (SLUM) and, to halt inflation, an immediate government price freeze... on draft beer, pickled eggs, pickled weiners and pepperoni.

The Monck Road

by Glen Hodgson

In this year of 1974 it would be of interest to take a look at the early Colonization Roads of Haliburton County in their Centennial year celebrations. With this in mind I have found through research on early Government books and documents the following brief history:-

THE MONCK ROAD - Location of this road follows that generally of Highway #503 as it is today from the villages of Norland, Kinmount, Irondale, Gooderham and Wilberforce etc.,

In the year 1867 we find the following comments in the Report of the Commissioner of Crown Roads for the year ending December 31st. - MONCK ROAD - From Lake Couchiching in Mara, eastward to the Hastings, about 100 miles the whole line has been surveyed and located. About 8 1/4 miles of the road in the western end have been made. The expenditure thereon has been $4,953.14.

In the year 1868 the comments were as follows: MONCK ROAD - The renewal of works upon this road (which were closed in the fall of 1866) was commenced at the beginning of September last, under the management of Mr. Westley a gentleman of some considerable experience under the Directors of the Grand Trunk Railway. Mr. Westley experienced considerable difficulty in the locality wherein he operated in procuring competent men. The season proving wet and unfavourable and the line being at that point extremely low and swampy, Mr. Westley did not continue his work later than about the middle of October. Owing to these circumstances only two miles of new road were completed. The total expenditure for the season is $1,069.90.

In the year 1869 the comments were as follows: MONCK ROAD - The work on this road was commenced and carried on in two sections this year, viz., from the Bobcaygeon Road and from the Burleigh Road, both works tending Easterly. That from the Burleigh has been united with the Hastings Road, 15 miles. That from Bobcaygeon has been produced to a distance of about 10 miles.

In the year 1870 the comments were as follows: MONCK ROAD - west - This road has been prolonged about 8 miles further this season. It reaches now to the middle of Dalton township, and has been constructed from its commencement at the Rama road, near the Couchiching Lake, a total distance of 18 miles. The total cost of improvements made this season is $4,600.83. MONCK ROAD - east (new bridge) - The Monck Road east terminates at the intersection of the York River along the east bank of which the Hastings Road runs. A substantial bridge has been built this year across the above river, affording a necessary connection with the latter road, and thus perfecting the communication. The bridge and roadway is supported upon strong crib piers, well loaded with stone, having a substantial three inch plank flooring, and strong hand-rail. Total expenditure on bridge $647.17.

In the years 1871 and 1872 the comments were as follows:-

MONCK ROAD - east - On this road the Overseer reports eight and three fourths miles of new road completed this year, extending from Lot No. 27, in the Township of Monmouth. Much obstruction it is reported was experienced during nearly the whole season, from bush fires causing great loss of time and much additional expense in renewing and protecting crossways. The total expenditure as per account is $4,440.76. On which account there has been paid $4,000.00. MONCK ROAD - west - The work done on this road has been inspected, and is reported to have been well and substantially done. 7 1/2 miles of new road have been constructed this year, reaching as far as Lot. No. 25 in the second concession of the Township of Digby. The land traversed by the last four or five miles of the part of road made this year, is described as being fair and arable quality, and having a progressive settlement. From the terminus of the work on this part of the road, an exploration has been made to the southward of Head Lake, the object being to connect the road with the Bobcaygeon road by a better route than the one already surveyed to the north of the said Lake. A very good line for the above purpose has been discovered. It disclosed land for a superior quality, while the road can be more cheaply formed. The total expenditure this year on this part of the road is $3,855.54.

MONCK ROAD - east - Operations were commenced on this road early in the spring and continued until 18th. October last. 8 miles of road have been completed. This section of the road is now finished from the Bobcaygeon Road to the junction with the Mississippi and Hastings Roads, at the York Branch of the Madawaska River. Total expenditure this 1872, $3,791.05. MONCK ROAD - west - Nine miles have been completed on this section during the year, extending from Lot. 24 in Digby to the Gull River in the village of Norland. Total expenditure $3,650.36.

In the year 1873 the comments were as follows: MONCK ROAD - This road has been completed this year. The distance wrought over lies between the village of Norland and Kinmount. The work is reported by the Inspector to have been substantially made. Beside the length of new road made - seven miles - a bridge has been renewed near the intersection of the Cameron Road with the Monck Road at the village of Norland, the outlay for which has been included in the expenditure herewith given, namely $4,055.33.

In the year 1874 the comments were as follows: MONCK ROAD - This road has been completed from the substantial and well finished Falls Road with the Monck Road to the Village of Kinmount. The road has been ditched throughout that distance (two miles) and further repairs have been made in brushing and off-take drains. The Crego's Creek Bridge, on this road has also been built. It is a substantial and well finished structure. There has been paid on account of both road and bridge the sum of $1,480.10. MONCK ROAD -

East of Kinmount/- The Monck Road between the Village of Kinmount all through to the Hastings Road intersection, has received some necessary general repairs, consisting of renewal of burnt crossways and small bridges and removal of stumps and stones. The whole distance gone over between the above described points is fifty-six miles. Of course there is a large amount of this distance upon which no repairs were specifically needed, and the actual work has only been where positive breaches or obstructions existed. The amount expended on account is $1,209.70.

In the year 1877 the comments were as follows: MONCK ROAD - Improved from Bobcaygeon Road to Pine Lake in Glamorgan, 20 miles. Expenditure $1,095.38.

In the year 1879 the comments were as follows: MONCK ROAD, No. 1 - Six Miles of this Road have been very well repaired this season commencing at the Victoria Road an extending westward to the close of the work of last season. Expenditure $1,120.65. MONCK ROAD No. 2 - These repairs have been made from the 16th. Lot of Cardiff westward, over a distance of 7 miles, extending to within about half a mile of the Burnt River. Expenditure $320.05.

In the year 1880 the comments were as follows: MONCK ROAD - The condition of this was materially improved in a westerly direction from a point 2 miles west of Bobcaygeon Road. 3 1/2 miles were wrought over. Expenditure $267.00.

In the year 1881 the comments were as follows: MONCK ROAD - Repairs of this road were made at several points. It was repaired from its intersection with the Hastings Road, westerly to the Burleigh Road, 17 miles. Repairs were also made between the Cameron Road and the Victoria Road and from Kinmount easterly towards the Furleigh. This road with many others suffered very much from the bush fires, and was repaired at additional cost. Altogether about 30 miles received repairs. Expenditure $1,617.13.

In the year 1882 the comments were as follows: MONCK ROAD - Repairs were begun 7 miles east of Bobcaygeon Road, and extended easterly 5 miles to what is known as Devil's Creek, where a substantial structure 200 feet long was built to replace the old bridge. Other repairs were made east of Norland. Annual repairs are still required upon this road it being the chief east and west artery of the district. Expenditure $1,384.24.

In the year 1883 the comments were as follows: MONCK ROAD - Repairs were made from about 5 miles east of the Bobcaygeon Road for 15 miles and it is reported by persons who have driven over it as being in excellent condition. Included in the expenditure are pretty extensive repairs to Burnt River and Devil's Creek bridges. Expenditure $1,365.32.

In the year 1884 the comments were as follows: MONCK ROAD - Repaired

OBITUARY

There passed away in Ross Memorial Hospital, Lindsay a long time resident of Carnarvon, Ont. John Henry Harrison on June 9, 1974. He was the last living member of the family of Nicholas Harrison and Agnes Alsworth. He was born on October 1, 1881 in Minden Township, one of a family of nine. His father was one of four brothers that settled and homesteaded on the shores of Twelve Mile Lake. He married Elizabeth Cooper in the year of 1913, who now mourns his loss. They farmed for 38 years at Little Boshkung Lake and upon retirement they built a home at the head of Twelve Mile Lake, where they resided until early in 1974, after which time they moved to the Hyland Crest Senior Citizen's Home in Minden. He also leaves to mourn his loss, Tom, Bert, Dave and Morgan, all brothers of a second marriage of Nicholas Harrison; also many nephews and nieces who will miss his many happy and cheerful 'Hello's'. He was a long time member of St. Peter's Anglican Church congregation of Maple Lake. Interment was at St. Stephen's Cemetery, Boshkung. Pallbearers were nephews, Arbery Harrison, Murray Hogg, Alvin Deacon, Elmer, Lloyd and James Harrison. 'Oh Rest My True and Faithful Servant'.

from the boundary between Glamorgan and Monmouth to within about 1 1/2 miles of Cheddar; about 14 miles in all of road repaired. Expenditure $487.13.

In the year 1885 the comments were as follows: MONCK ROAD - 14 Miles repaired from the Hastings Road westerly. Expenditure $529.51. Balance of 1884 $854.91.

In the year 1886 the comments were as follows: MONCK ROAD - These are repairs from the west end of the Monck Road easterly over some 4 miles, consisting chiefly in gravelling and grading, as this section of the road was low and required elevating. Expenditure $829.15.

CARD OF THANKS

The Committee of Management and Administration of Hyland Crest wish to express their sincere appreciation to all who assisted in so many ways to make the Over 70's dinner at the Home such a success. Without the help of the Municipalities for their financial support and the volunteers who worked so hard, it would not have been possible to serve all whom we were so happy to have attend. Thank you one and all.

to be planning this, it was decided to have a special Auxiliary meeting the end of August.
As no volunteers were found to go with the Regional Representative as delegates to the annual Ontario Assn. of Homes for the Aged Convention in Toronto in September it was moved by Doreen Stinson, seconded by Jessie Barnett that $75 be paid towards the expenses of Lil Rawlins, thus saving the taxpayers some money. This is a real tribute to a hard working woman.
Before the meeting closed, the president, Norm Gilmore had the pleasant task of presenting a Past President Pin to Helen Johnson.
